A Prayer Walk along the Canal Towpath

We meet at the River Walk Café at 4pm.

From Psalm 119: Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law: I am a stranger on earth, do not hide your commands from me.

From Psalm 8 – O Lord our governor,
How glorious is your name in all the earth.

To read halfway along:

Colossians Ch 3

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Whatever your task, put yourselves into it, as done for the Lord and not for your masters, since you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you serve the Lord Christ.

Prayers finishing with The Lord's Prayer

Lord, it is good that we are here. Let us build a shelter for you in our hearts. Let it be said of us that passing through the barren valley, we make it a place of springs.
